◆INTROIT Let Us with a Gladsome Mind PSALM 136

◆CALL TO WORSHIP FROM PSALM 63

Leader: O God, you are my God; earnestly I seek you;
my soul thirsts for you.

People: My flesh faints for you, as in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

Leader: So I have looked upon you in the sanctuary,
beholding your power and glory.

People: Because your steadfast love is better than life,
my lips will praise you.

Leader: So I will bless you as long as I live;
in your name I will lift up my hands.

People: My soul will be satisfied as with fat and rich food,
and my mouth will praise you with joyful lips.

◆INVOCATION

◆HYMN NO. 331 God of the Ages NATIONAL HYMN

◆PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, you have called us to leave our nets and follow you, but we are still clinging to the old ways. Because you love us, you have called us friends and invited us into a relationship with you, but we remain disconnected. We are proud of what we know, and we understand our way of thinking to be the best, even when we are not connected to you in meaningful ways. Please forgive us for our independence and draw us back to a relationship with you. Help us to walk with you, talk with you, and stay close to you.

◆SILENT PRAYER OF CONFESSION

◆AFFIRMATION OF FAITH
THE THEOLOGICAL DECLARATION OF BARMEN (1934)
Leader: Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom, our righteousness and sanctification and redemption.
People: As Jesus Christ is God's assurance of the forgiveness of all our sins, so in the same way and with the same seriousness is he also God's mighty claim upon our whole life. Through him befalls us a joyful deliverance from the godless fetters of this world for a free, grateful service to his creatures. We reject the false doctrine, as though there were areas of our life in which we would not belong to Jesus Christ, but to other lords—areas in which we would not need justification and sanctification through him.

THE LORD'S PRAYER
