◆ CALL TO WORSHIP

FROM PSALM 30

One: Sing praise to the Lord, you faithful people.

All: Give thanks to God's holy name.

One: For the Lord restores our life;

All: God raises us from the dead.

One: Will the dust sing God's praise, or tell of God's faithfulness?

All: Our souls will sing to the Lord.

How can we be silent?

We will give thanks to God forever.

◆ PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious and loving God, you are always present with us. Your faithfulness knows no limits. You call us to worship you in spirit and in truth. Yet far too often, our worship is perfunctory. We phone it in. Our minds focus on other matters. What seems urgent at the time distracts us. Worship is one more item to check off our lists. Forgive us for our cavalier and casual attitudes. Remind us of the importance of praising your Name, hearing your Word, and enjoying your presence. Restore to us the joy of true worship. We pray through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

-Silent Personal Confession -

◆ ASSURANCE OF GOD'S PARDON

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
 Praise Christ, all people here below;
 Praise Holy Spirit evermore;
 Praise Triune God, whom we adore. Amen.

◆ SHARING CHRIST'S PEACE

One: The peace of Christ be with you!
 All: And also with you!

Please share the peace of Christ with your neighbor

◆ AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

FROM PCUSA'S A BRIEF STATEMENT OF FAITH (1983)

We trust in God, whom Jesus called Abba, Father.
 In sovereign love God created the world good and makes everyone equally in God's image male and female, of every race and people, to live as one community.
 But we rebel against God; we hide from our Creator.
 Ignoring God's commandments, we violate the image of God in others and ourselves, accept lies as truth, exploit neighbor and nature, and threaten death to the planet entrusted to our care.
 We deserve God's condemnation.
 Yet God acts with justice and mercy to redeem creation.
 In everlasting love, the God of Abraham and Sarah chose a covenant people to bless all families of the earth.
 Hearing their cry, God delivered the children of Israel from the house of bondage.
 Loving us still, God makes us heirs with Christ of the covenant.
 Like a mother who will not forsake her nursing child,
 like a father who runs to welcome the prodigal home,
 God is faithful still.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen to God, the mak - er of all things and giv - er of our days.

O peo - ple, love the Lord your God, the source of truth and light.
O chil - dren, take these ho - ly words and keep them in your heart.
to God, the mak - er of all things and giv - er of our days.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'The Lord Is God'. It consists of two systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a bass line (bass clef). The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are printed below the vocal line. The first system contains the first four lines of the hymn, and the second system contains the final four lines. The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with clear note values and rests.

This hymn paraphrases the Shema (Deuteronomy 6:4–9), an ancient and central affirmation of Jewish monotheistic faith that observant Jews still recite twice a day. Jesus knew it well and called it the first and great commandment (Matthew 22:38/Mark 12:28–29/Luke 10:26–28).

I came to Je - sus as I was, so wea - ry, worn, and sad; I

 I looked to Je - sus, and I found in him my star, my sun; and thirst was quenched, my soul re - vived, and now I live in him.

 in that light of life I'll walk till trav - eling days are done.

Each stanza here pairs an invitation from Jesus with a response from the narrator. These three invitations recall how Jesus welcomed those who were heavy laden (Matthew 11:28), offered living water (John 4:10-14), and identified himself as the light of the world (John 8:12, 9:5).

This text and this tune occur in almost all English-language hymnals (though not always together). The transforming power of love motivates the unending praise of the life to come, and this fine Welsh tune (whose name means "delightful") gives us a foretaste of endless song.

We look forward to preparing for this special day of worship together!

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL OPPORTUNITY

Have you ever heard the term Lectio Divina? It means "divine reading," and it is a traditional Christian practice of reading, meditating, and praying with the Bible to deepen one's relationship with God. It is a particular way of devotional reading, listening for how God may communicate with you through Scripture.

On Sundays in November, the New Class will be reading through Philippians using the Lectio Divina method. We've spent the past few weeks studying Philippians with a more academic approach, and now we are going to go back through with a devotional, meditative, prayerful approach. All are invited to join in- for all Sundays or whenever you can make it. It is perfect for the ones who have said things like, "I find it hard to read the Bible by myself" or "I'm not sure how to hear God speaking to me." Every Sunday in Covenant Hall. 10:00 - 10:45

READ GOOD BOOKS IN 2024!

Join Pastor Daniel in reading the last two books in 2024. A variety of topics, authors, and genres, the choices are designed to stimulate the heart and mind and be a catalyst for growth in discipleship. Read each in preparation for the group discussion at 6:00 p.m. on the 4th Sunday of every other month. Books may be purchased online or at church ($10 for What if Jesus Was Serious about Heaven)

- On October 27th we'll discuss Skye Jethani's What if Jesus Was Serious about Heaven. Jethani unpacks what Jesus really said about heaven and how it can transform our faith today. Questions about heaven and the ways we may have misinterpreted it through the years? This is a book for you.
- On December 22nd we'll discuss Keith and Kristyn Getty's Sing!
