PRELUDE

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

◆ SONG OF PREPARATION NO. 137

He Came Down

HE CAME DOWN

He came down that we may have peace;
hallelujah forevermore.

◆ LIGHTING THE CANDLE OF PEACE

The Gibson Family

One: In a world full of fear, where do you see glimmers of peace?

All: We see glimmers of peace in the quiet of early morning, when people shake hands, when loved ones say they're sorry, and when the church sings together.

One: Even in a fearful world, peace is all around us.

All: Today we light the candle of peace as a reminder of this good news.

May this flicker of light help us remember that even in a fearful world, peace is present.
We only have to look for it.

The Candle of Peace is lighted.

One: Thanks be to God!

All: Amen.

◆ ADVENT HYMN NO. 82

Come, Thou Long Expected Jesus

HYFRYDOL

At this time, youth and children who want to participate in the hanging of the chrismos on the tree may exit to the Narthex to prepare for the processional during the next hymn.

◆ LITANY FOR DECORATING THE SANCTUARY

One: On this second Sunday of Advent, we see the sanctuary decorated with symbols that point us toward the hope we have in Jesus Christ. The greenery, the wreaths, the poinsettias, the tree, the lights, and the ornaments all have special meaning that remind us of the coming of the Lord.

All: As we are at work preparing this sanctuary, may God be at work preparing our hearts. Come, Lord Jesus!

One: We see wreaths of evergreen to signify the eternal reign of Jesus Christ.

All: For to us a child is born, to us a son is given.

Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end.

One: We see poinsettias, known as the Flower of the Holy Night, to signify the star of Bethlehem.

All: Wise men followed a star to Bethlehem so that they might worship the new born Savior.
 One: We see a tree, adorned with lights, to signify the One who brings light to our darkness, healing to our brokenness, and peace to all who receive him.
 All: Jesus said, "I am the light of the world."
 One: We hang chrismons: stars, crosses, triangles, the "alpha" and the "omega" to remind us of the Trinity and the incarnation.
 All: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
 One: We worship God and give thanks for the blessings of the coming King.
 All: Come, Lord Jesus!

◆ HYMN NO. 134

Joy to the World!

ANTIOCH

Children process with chrismons.

◆ PASSING THE PEACE

One: The peace of Christ be with you!
 All: And also with you!

Please share the peace of Christ with your neighbor

THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

◆ INVITATION TO THE LORD'S TABLE

◆ AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We have seen the valley. We have seen a sky without stars.
 We have seen the longest night, and still we believe.
 We believe in a with-us God. We believe in the hope of tomorrow.
 We believe that good news is louder than fear.
 We believe this good news is for all people.
 So even when our knees shake, even when our voice trembles, even when fear is all around us, we will hold onto that good news.
 We will reach for each other. We will look for God in our midst.
 We will sing songs of joy. We will proclaim: Unto us, love is born.
 We have seen the longest night, and we have seen unimaginable love.
 So still, we believe. Amen.

Forms are available at the Hospitality Table in the narthex, or you may fill one out online under the visitor tab at wpccharleston.org or using the QR code. One of our pastors or someone from the Membership Committee will quickly be in touch, providing an opportunity individually or with a group to learn more about the church. On a Sunday morning, you'll attend a meeting with the Session for reception into membership. We'll handle paperwork if you're transferring from another church or arrange baptism if you've never been baptized. That same Sunday morning, you'll be introduced to the congregation during worship. Questions? Speak with an usher or one of our pastors following the service.

TODAY WE CELEBRATE THE LORD'S SUPPER

All who profess faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior are invited to share in the bread and the cup. Elders will serve the congregation seated in the pews; you may partake as soon as you are served. WPC is a safe place for those in recovery- we serve grape juice only. Gluten free bread is available in the center of the juice tray. Children are invited to the table provided they've had instruction at home or in Westminster's worship prep class (1st grade).

WORSHIP PREP DISCIPLES

Today we celebrate with Worship Prep Students Everett Daniels and Eleanor Barfield who are completing their study with Dee Bee Wright and their parents. They've been learning all about worship and will be sharing the Lord's Supper today. We are proud of these students and the other 9 who took part in the class this year.

ANGEL TREE

Help a Mary Ford student have a joyful Christmas! The Angel Tree will appear in the Narthex on Sunday, November 30th. You can help in one of two ways: 1) Select an Angel (labeled by age, the children are between 4 & 5, and gender) from the Angel Tree in the Narthex. Purchase gifts accordingly. Gifts should go unwrapped in a gift bag with the Angel tag attached and placed under the tree by Friday, December 12 OR 2) Put a check in the offering plate or go to wpccharleston.org, select "Give" in the top right corner, then select "Angel Tree" from the drop down menu to make a donation and the Youth Group can shop for you. Do not choose an Angel if you're making a monetary donation.

POINSETTIAS

If you would like to help beautify our sanctuary for this year's Advent and Christmas season through the gift of one or more poinsettias, please complete a Poinsettia order form located in both the friendship pad and the narthex. The cost is $20 per poinsettia and payment can be made by attaching check or cash to the completed form and placing it in the offering plate or dropping it by the church office. Poinsettias will be placed on the chancel beginning today and may be picked up following the 7:00 Christmas Eve service. The deadline for ordering is today!

YOU'RE INVITED! "HOLY GROUNDS" TODAY; 9:45- 10:15AM IN COVENANT HALL

Join us for Holy Grounds, a new monthly gathering during the Sunday School hour, hosted by the deacons! This casual time of coffee, conversation (and pastries!) is designed to welcome new members and invite existing members who want to meet others, get more involved in the life of the church, and build meaningful connections. We will meet this morning just prior to It's a Wonderful Life adult Sunday School. Come for the coffee, stay for the fellowship!

COMBINED ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL DURING ADVENT: IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE!

We'll view and discuss portions of the classic movie It's a Wonderful Life.

It's a Wonderful Life is one of the most popular and heartwarming films ever made. Its near universal appeal and association with Christmas has provided a rich story of redemption that has inspired generations for decades. Set on Christmas Eve in a post-World War II small town, it tells a story of the likable and selfless George Bailey, a small-town banker who suffers scandal and ruin not of his own making only to be saved in the final act through intervention by God, family, and friends. There's no better time than Christmas to be reminded that every human life has value, and that true wealth - spiritual wealth- comes from a right relationship with God and selfless love toward others.

Everyone is invited. December 7, 14, and 21 in Covenant Hall at 10:00.

SAMS UPCOMING EVENTS

READ GOOD BOOKS IN 2025!

On December 21, we'll discuss Fleming Rutledge's Advent. In her collection of writings and sermons, Rutledge will help us get ready. As the midnight of the Christian year, the season of Advent is rife with dark, gritty realities. In this book, with her trademark wit and wisdom, Rutledge explores Advent as a time of rich paradoxes, a season celebrating at once Christ's incarnation and his second coming, and she masterfully unfolds the ethical and future-oriented significance of Advent for the church. We'll read prescribed portions of the book in preparation for discussion on Sunday December 21 at 4:00. Books are $25 and available in the narthex.

GIFT MAKING WORKSHOP

On December 13th we will have our annual gift making workshop in the Covenant Hall from 9:00-11:00a.m.! First through fifth graders are invited to sign up and join us to create and wrap Christmas gifts for their loved ones. There is only room for 25 children, so sign up quickly using the QR code below. We look forward to seeing you there!

Volunteer Opportunity- If you would like to host a gift making station, please email Claire Winkles at cwinkles@wpccharleston.org

The Season of Advent

ADVENT is the Latin word for “coming.” For Christians it refers to the church season that prepares for the coming of Jesus Christ as God in human flesh – the incarnation. We celebrate his humble birth, his coming to us now, and his coming again in glory at the end of time.

The round shape of the Advent Wreath is a symbol of God's never-ending love for us. The evergreens represent everlasting life, and the purple candles are for him who comes royally as King of kings and Lord of lords. The pink candle is for the joy of the season, and in the center of the wreath is the white Christ candle lit on Christmas Eve. In the ancient world, various peoples lit fires to mark the turning of the light into winter's season and to pray for the return of the light. To us, these candles are signs of the growing light of Christ who is coming again in all fullness into the darkness of our world. Until the dawning of that Great Day, we watch and wait in Holy Spirit for Christ's coming into the darkness of our world, lighting candles of hope, peace, joy, and love; and remembering the promises of God with prayer.

The Christmas tree is adorned with lights and Chrismons. Lights remind us that Jesus is the light of the world. Chrismons are symbols that illustrate aspects of the Christian faith.

Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus 82

1 Come, thou long - ex - pect-ed Je - sus, born to set thy peo-ple free;
2 Born thy peo - ple to de - liv - er, born a child and yet a king, from our fears and sins re - lease us; let us find our rest in thee.

born to reign in us for - ev - er, now thy gra-cious king-dom bring.

Is-rael's strength and con-so - la - tion, hope of all the earth thou art;
By thine own e - ter - nal Spir - it rule in all our hearts a - lone;

dear de - sire of ev - ery na - tion, joy of ev - ery long-ing heart.
by thine all - suf-fi - cient mer - it raise us to thy glo-rious throne.

With its opening "Come," this hymn sounds the note of entreaty and invitation that characterizes the Advent season (from the Latin adventus = "coming"). Its blending of memory and hope helps us to give voice to our present faith as we stand between the past and the future.

While Isaac Watts did not write this text strictly for Christmas use, he did purposely cast his paraphrase of Psalm 98:4-9 in Christian terms, titling it "The Messiah's coming and kingdom." So "the Lord" here is Jesus Christ, rather than the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

O Lord, How Shall I Meet You 104

1 O Lord, how shall I meet you, how wel-come you a - right?

 3 You come, O Lord, with glad - ness, in mer - cy and good-will,

Your peo - ple long to greet you, my hope, my heart's de - light!
 your thirst for my sal - va - tion pro-cured my lib - er - ty.

 in love, all loves ex - cel - ling, our lost and fal - len race.
 when your re - newed cre - a - tion your glo - ry shall dis - play.

Though many Advent hymns address Christ with entreaty and invitation, this more contemplative text considers how an individual prepares for and responds to Christ's coming. It also brings together a recollection of the First Coming with an anticipation of the Second Coming.
